

THE CONTEXT

2,6 million
declared domestic workers in Europe

80%

of them are women

30%

are migrants

THE PROJECT

11

partners from 4 different countries

3
years

European organization
EFFE

Spain
FOREM
CCOO de Construcción y Servicios
GRUPO SSI
FUNDAE

France
IPERIA l'Institut
FEPem

Italy
MARGOTTA
ASSINDATCOLF
Regione Emilia-Romagna
ANCL

THE RESULTS

01

Achieve a better understanding

Study "The state of the art of related professional profiles, training and certifications"

02

Develop a tailored training pathway

Curriculum design:
3 Focus group

9 blended modules: 18 competences + 284 learning outcomes

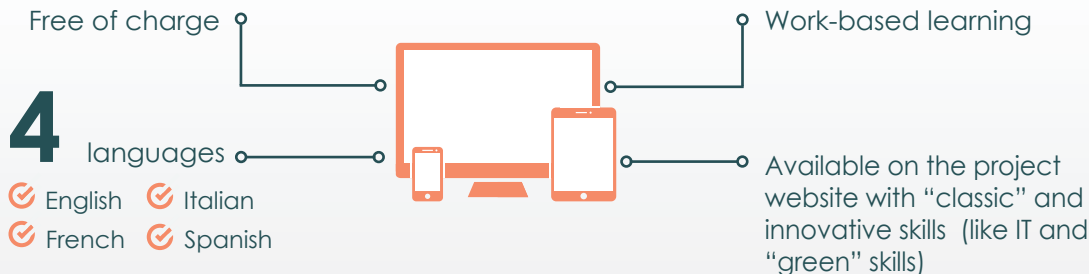

Training delivery to be tested by 40 domestic housekeepers

03

Promote certification and recognition at EU Level

5 Policy visits + 5 National workshops

Report on certification pathways
Roadmap for professionalisation
European conference (100 participants)

WORK DONE

NEARING COMPLETION

WORK IN PROGRESS

Dissemination and exploitation

700 leaflets distributed.
+60 external presentations.
+25 publications and articles.
+3200 visits to the website vs 3000 planned.
4 infographics + 4 newsletters + 4 posters.

Evaluation

1 Monitoring and evaluation plan regularly updated.
3 Evaluation reports based on periodic questionnaires to partners planned.

Quality Assurance

1 Quality plan regularly updated.
49 agreed internal quality criteria.
11 internal peer review completed planned.

Management

1 Management handbook and planning regularly updated.
1 Online workspace at MyPublicWorks.
4 face to face and 16 online meetings organised.

DURING ALL PROJECT LIFESPAN

More than 900

key stakeholders involved

EXPECTED IMPACT

Contribute to the professionalisation and recognition of domestic housekeepers by providing an innovative and common European curriculum, as well as standards for recognition, and potential pathways for certification.